Chammas & Marcheteau advises the new investors in the €11 million fundraising of Wattalps (Energy/Cleantech)

Chammas & Marcheteau advised the new investors in Wattalps' €11 million Series A financing round, led by Supernova Invest and Dutch fund Move Energy, alongside Ring Capital and Casra Capital, and historical investors EIT InnoEnergy, Eximium and EIC Fund.

Founded in 2018, Wattalps manufactures immersion-cooled batteries and is pioneering this cutting-edge technology to push the boundaries of classical lithium-ion batteries by increasing their performance, life and safety.

This funding will allow the company to carry out an ambitious development program, with the aim of increasing its manufacturing capacity eightfold and surpassing turnover of 100 million euros in five years.

The Chammas & Marcheteau team consisted of Lola Chammas, Jérôme Chapron (partners) and Agathe Delforge (associate).
