

Chammas & Marcheteau advises Shift4Good, lead investor in the Green Corp Konnection's (GCK) €50 million fundraising (Energy/Mobility)

Chammas & Marcheteau advised Shift4Good, a venture capital fund dedicated to impact investment in sustainable mobility and in the circular economy of mobility, as lead investor in GCK's €50 million fundraising, alongside its founding and historic partners, including industrialist MOTUL.

Founded in 2020, GCK is a French start-up and a player in decarbonized mobility offering an approach combining the development of technologies for tomorrow's mobility, their integration into vehicles and the supply of clean energy.

This funding will support GCK's expansion into industrial-scale production (with five operational sites), further R&D and international growth.

The Chammas & Marcheteau team consisted of Jérôme Chapron (partner) and Nathan Joder (associate).
