

Chammas & Marcheteau advises Bpifrance on its entry into the capital of WIT
(Technology/Energy)

Chammas & Marcheteau advised Bpifrance, via its Energie Environnement 2 fund, on its entry into the capital of WIT as part of a majority LBO led by the LT Capital fund with the group's management and its historical shareholder.

Founded in 1984, WIT offers solutions for monitoring and controlling the energy performance of buildings (public, tertiary and residential), as well as solutions for monitoring, controlling and monitoring drinking and waste water networks (sewerage, production and distribution of drinking water).

With this transaction, WIT aims to step up its presence in France and Europe in both the Smart Building and Smart Water segments.

The Chammas & Marcheteau team consisted of Pierre-Louis Sévegrand (partner) and Pierre Rougemond (associate).
