

Chammas & Marcheteau advises Bpifrance and Caphorn in the context of Faircraft's
12 million fundraising (Biotechnology)

Chammas & Marcheteau advised new entrants Bpifrance and Anaxago/Caphorn in Faircraft's €12 million Series A financing round, alongside American investors Heirloom and Kindred Ventures, UK-based Blue Wire Capital, AFI Ventures and Entrepreneur First.

Founded in 2021, Faircraft is a French startup developing a highly sustainable, laboratory-grown alternative to animal leather, based on advanced tissue engineering and material science techniques.

This new funding will enable the company to begin industrializing its production and sign its first commercial contracts.

The Chammas & Marcheteau team consisted of Lola Chammas (partner) and Florent Gassies (associate) on contractual and corporate aspects, Christophe Moreau (partner) and Marjorie Masoni (associate) on tax aspects, Coline Bied-Charreton (partner) and Jean Duffour (associate) on social aspects, and Aude Spinasse (partner) and Constance Parini (associate) on intellectual property aspects.
