

Chammas & Marcheteau advises XAnge and Acton Capital in Tomorro's €25 million fundraising (Software/AI)

Chammas & Marcheteau advised XAnge and the German Acton Capital, co-lead investors in Tomorro's 25 million euros Series B fundraising, followed by incoming investors Adelie and Founders Future, alongside the company's historical investors.

Founded in 2020, Tomorro offers a complete contract management solution based on artificial intelligence, enabling companies to generate, negotiate, sign and monitor their contracts.

This new financing will enable the company to double its investment in AI and innovation, accelerate its European expansion with a first office in Germany and recruit more than 100 talents in two years.

The Chammas & Marcheteau team consisted of Denis Marcheteau (partner) and Arys Serdjanian (associate).
