

Chammas & Marcheteau advises Koesio Groupe on the sale of its Heliaq branch (Digital/Service)

Chammas & Marcheteau advised Koesio Groupe on the sale of its Heliaq branch (formerly Koesio Corporate IT) to the Chevrillon family office and the Arkéa investment fund. As part of this transaction, Koesio Groupe is reinvesting alongside the new shareholders to support Heliaq's growth and development.

Koesio Groupe has decided to refocus its activity as an IT reseller and service provider on VSEs, SMEs, mid-caps and local authorities. Founded in 1957, Heliaq is a French digital services company (Entreprise de Services Numériques) specializing in IT support and services, offering key account customers solutions for digital work environments, IT infrastructures, cloud solutions and cybersecurity.

This operation will enable Heliaq to consolidate its leading position in the sector, enrich its range of services and intensify its growth, by combining innovation, local commitment and operational performance, in a responsible and sustainable approach.

The Chammas & Marcheteau team consisted of Christophe Blondeau (partner), Margaux Deuchler, Agathe Delforge and Flore-Maxence Le Blanc (associates).
